

I live in a rural area and really enjoy having satellite radio and tv.

Being a business traveler I can get traffic and weather before I travel to a big city.

Satellite broadcasts keep me connected and informed from anywhere that I am and where I am going to.

Limiting information that I can receive is I believe a violation of my first amendment rights.

Please keep this valuable service available to me and millions others.

Thanks